1812 service, can be found. If clammins or agents desiring my assistance cannot state captain's name, never mind, rend all the facts or history of service, you have; and in old cases, the number of application. Terms reasonable, and all may rely on a faithful and speedy examination. Good references given.

Hona fide, honest cases need not despair. Success does not depend on any agent's being in Washington or any particular city, but on his facilities. These we have, can tell any 1812, Michigan or New York soldier, how he served, if he has had Bounty, have full lists of the New York and Massachusetts, (with Maine) 1812 soldiers. BLACK HAWK WAR. Any soldiers of those 6 companies, who went to "Ten Eyck's" and Ann Arbor, May, 1852, who have not written me, should do so, as, if all who unite in the petition to Congress, the measure to give warrants for that ten days service, will be more likely to be carried. A strong offort will be made, if the soldiers will come forward, and we may expect success.
